

General Cushman

NSA and our Central Reference Service (DDI) have been studying the feasibility of eliminating duplication by having NSA use CIA's CRS resources to service NSA's biographic information requests.

AT [ ] has studied the recommendations of his people and believes that the proposal is sound. He suggests that if you agree that Agency and NSA representatives work out the details of implementing the arrangement.

AT [ ]
[ ] CRS is ready to move ahead if policy approval is obtained.

Attached for your signature is a buckslip asking DDI to prepare a reply.
